

Note from the President

As President of GO Companies, I am extremely fortunate to have worked with talented professionals as clients, employees, and supply partners for the last decade. My gratitude for the last ten years is only overshadowed by my excitement toward the future.

To our current and future clients, we appreciate the opportunity to listen to your objectives and respond with solutions that help your businesses achieve higher levels of success.

Whether you have been doing business with us for a decade or considering GO for the first time, you have our commitment that no one will work harder toward your current and future goals.

To our staff, we truly have a brilliant assembly of talent. I am continually inspired by the limitless passion and work ethic that radiates throughout our organization. I am equally impressed with how the team valiantly responds to goals, change, and market opportunities.

Over the last decade, we have not only been blessed with extraordinary client relationships and employees, but we are very fortunate to work with gifted industry experts within our resource network. When it comes to our supply partners, we realize that our success is inextricably bound and that our collaboration helps us return optimal value to our clients.

These are exciting times at GO. The last decade has been one of challenges, opportunities, and successes. With great anticipation, I look forward to marching to the future with rewarding client relationships, ranks of talented staff, and exceptional supply partners.

John Merriweather